"THE HIKER"

Erected through proceeds of a trust fund established by the late Col. John Hicks and dedicated to the City of Oshkosh by the Nelson A. Miles Camp, No. 1, United Spanish War Veterans, October 22, 1939. "The Hiker" emblematic of American ideals represents the Service Men of 1898 who came from all parts of our country— the North, South, East and West.
